

We are pleased to introduce

A comprehensive website that you and your student can use to make plans about college, career, and life readiness. Students in grades K-12 are able to take self-discovery assessments to help guide them in planning their short term academic goals and long term college and career interests. Students will also use the platform to complete course planning for

Take self-discovery assessments –

Complete the registration process

8th Grade:

9-12th Grade:

Get involved in the planning and advising process –

Research colleges –

Research careers –

Create plans for the future –