Members of the School Improvement Team and Family Advocates will have quarterly Principal Chats to continue bridging the gap between home and school.

Presentations and resources will also be translated and shared for English Learner Parents.

In addition to this, resources obtained from each training will be housed on our website and parent square for future viewing.

A Comprehensive Communication plan will be implemented to include.

parent and family engagement activities, including family literacy night.

Title 1 Parent and Family Engagement meetings will be promoted and announced throughout the school

During Orientation, parents will actively be informed of the multiple opportunities to volunteer at TPA. These opportunities include but are not limited to SIT membership, various school wide committees. In addition, there will be opportunities throughout the year for parents to actively volunteer and participate towards student success. Our Family Advocates will readily be accessing parent questions via face to face and equity audits and through our survey process. Our Parent Advocates will respond to parent concerns and questions promptly. An FAQ, Frequently Asked Questions document will be sent to all parents through ParentSquare with a link for parents to use to send their questions to the school.

Regarding access to student assessment performance, state standards and proficiency levels, the TPA Academic Facilitator will actively inform parents via ParentSquare and on the website as information becomes available from the state. Turning Point will lean into our district ML department to provide our ML families with translators during presentations. Our School and Family compact will be presented and signed during the Annual Right to Know meeting. The document will also be translated into Spanish for our bi-lingual parents and students.

students and families. These services will go beyond the traditional services, they will include but are not limited to food pantries, clothing donations, holiday gifts, and the donation of personal items.

Parents and School Improvement Team members will be invited to the annual evaluation Title 1 Meeting. This meeting will occur, Mid May and will serve as an assessment of the annual title 1 program and its impact and effectiveness.

From past experiences and parental events, TPA is prompted to include light refreshments at Parent events, such acts potentially increase parent engagement. To adhere to our working parents and parents with challenging schedules, all parent engagement events will be recorded and posted on ParentSquare and the TPA website.
