Good Evening Myers Park High School Families,

Students in 4X4 classes will be taking midterms next week. Midterms will be

- . Midterms will be in this order - block 4, block 3, block 2, then block 1. We will follow a revised bell schedule, is the last day of quarter 3. , is a teacher workday.

For the 2023 – 2024 school year, Myers Park High School is launching Honors Leadership & Learning as a class that focuses on academic support via student-to-student peer tutoring. Honors Leadership & Learning will be a student led class that will offer tutoring in the following subjects: Math, English (Reading/Writing), Multilingual Learners (ML), and World Languages. If selected, a student will be enrolled in Honors Leadership & Learning for one block (A or B Day) and assigned to one or more classes to provide peer tutoring. The course will be weighted as a 0.5 course. Honors Leadership & Learning is ONLY open to students who are rising grade 11 and rising grade 12.

Students will complete a weekly reflection in response to the following core values of the class:

1. Students Tutored (Name, Grade, Start Time, End Time - for Each)
2. Connections/Relationships (Means of Connecting with the Student(s))
3. Purpose in Tutoring (Class, Level, Topics Covered)
4. Process/Resources Used (Texts, Calculators, Chromebooks, Apps, Sites, etc...)
5. Outcomes (Successes, Areas of Growth – Both for the Student Academically and the Tutor Personally)
6. Next Steps (if any)

Students will be graded based on the completed reflections each week and feedback from the teacher(s) in the assigned classes. Once the students are selected, then a leadership team will be established.

Students who are interested in applying should complete the Honors Leadership & Learning application by
